YMCA CEO NAMES BLUE BELL RESIDENT PHIL ALBRIGHT AS “AMBLER YMCA VOLUNTEER OF THE YEAR”

PHILADELPHIA – June 5, 2007 – For his overwhelming generosity and willingness to serve others, Blue Bell resident Phil Albright has been named the “Ambler YMCA Volunteer of the Year.” YMCA CEO and John Flynn recognized Albright at the YMCA of Philadelphia & Vicinity’s Annual Meeting on Thursday, May 24, 2007.

“Volunteering at the Y gives me the opportunity to have a positive impact on the kids, families and communities that we serve,” says Albright. “Considering all of the great volunteers that the Y has, I feel honored to be recognized for my volunteer contributions.”

Albright has been a dedicated volunteer and member of the YMCA family for 65 years. He has been involved with the Ambler YMCA for nearly 20 years and has been an integral part of the branches success. Albright has been a tireless campaigner and fundraiser, two-time board chair and has served on numerous committees. Albright is dedicated to bettering the community and has volunteered for numerous organizations including the Wissahickon Valley Library, the Ambler Theater, Montgomery County Chamber of Commerce, the Presbyterian Children’s Village and Temple University’s Ambler Campus.

“Phil is a stellar volunteer at our Y”, says Jim Sheldon, acting executive director of the Ambler YMCA. “He places service above self in all endeavors and this is the sort of attitude that exemplifies the YMCA’s core values of Honesty, Caring, Respect and Responsibility.”

Located at 400 North Bethlehem Pike, the Ambler YMCA provides quality programming and Phresources for youth, teens, adults and individuals with disabilities, including full-day and after-school child care, summer camp, youth sports, teen leadership and adult fitness.
