YMCA CEO JOHN FLYNN NAMES HUNTINGDON VALLEY RESIDENT DR. JEN DE PICE
“HATBORO YMCA VOLUNTEER OF THE YEAR”

PHILADELPHIA – June 5, 2007 – For her overwhelming generosity and willingness to serve others, Dr. Jen De Pice has been named the “Hatboro YMCA Volunteer of the Year.” YMCA President and CEO John Flynn recognized Dr. De Pice at the YMCA of Philadelphia & Vicinity’s Annual Meeting on Thursday, May 24, 2007.

“I feel honored to receive this award”, says Dr. De Pice. “I volunteer because I love working with children and I feel blessed that through the Y I am able to make a difference in the lives of so many children in the Hatboro area.”

Involved with the Hatboro Y for more than three years, Dr. De Pice works hard to make the Hatboro Y a great place to be for everyone. She volunteers her time in a number of ways including supporting the gymnastics and swim teams, and developing creative events to raise funds for the YMCA Strong Kids Campaign.

“Dr. De Pice has been a doctor in the Hatboro community for more than 18 years and is involved with numerous community service organizations and school”, says Gary Chamberlain, executive director of the Hatboro YMCA. “She posses an infectious enthusiasm and we are privileged to have her as a “fixture” at our Y”.

Located at 440 South York Road in Hatboro, the Hatboro YMCA is a vital home-away-from home for its members, a link to positive values and a place that strengthens minds, bodies, and spirits through programming and resources for youth, teens and adults, including full-day and after-school child care, summer camp, youth sports, Y Achievers and adult fitness. Throughout the Y, an emphasis is placed on building character through the values of caring, honesty, respect and responsibility.
